

قام يسوع

Christ is risen

Inspired by the tragic event of the suicidal explosion of tow Coptic churches during Palm Sunday Service. May the Lord reward the martyrs and comfort their families.

Christ is risen.

Death is driven.

We've been given life in heaven.

The empty tomb shouts out loud.

"Christ is risen" Shout out loud.

Death is driven away out.

Christ is risen. Have no doubt.

"Christ is risen" is the song

Of heaven in every tongue.

"Christ is risen" is the song

Of all times all the way long.

Christ says to you and to me.

While his voice goes high and high:

"Whoever believes in me,

He will live and never die."

O Lord Jesus come again.

Look, your church is in great pain.

Her flesh is being chapped as mud.

Her blood flows like heavy flood

Her tears are like heavy rain

Burned in hatred and disdain,

Sons of Satan in God's name

Explode her and inflame.

They kill and steal in God's name.

As their father Satan did,

So Satan's sons do the same.

O God O God of salvation!

Is it the great tribulation?

We have seen what we had heard.

We've seen what had been revealed

In the book of revelation.

O Lord Satan has gone wild.

His sword conquers every field

Even children are being killed

Lord come and be our shield.

O Lord Satan has grown fat

Satan sees life of a woman

Cheaper than life of a cat.

Satan sees life of a human

Cheaper than life of a rat.

Your pastors, priests, monks, nuns and

Bishops are killed or kidnapped.

Your churches in Palm Sunday

are exploded like that

O Lord come and deal with that.
